Thank you for the beautiful and relaxing music you provided for the YWI membership party. You're not only tremendously talented and professionally prepared, you have a genius for selecting a program that is just right for the occasion."

*Lila Miner
Yuba Watershed Institute*

I think it was obvious to you, as well as everybody else, that the reception was a huge success-- lasting long into the night. That was just what our daughter and son-in-law had hoped. The evening was just delightful, and your music was an enormous contribution."

*Deborah and Howard Stone
Nevada City, Ca.*

What you did was just right--a good selection of music performed with brio, skill and a sense of fun. We all enjoyed it immensely and we are grateful to you for taking the time and trouble to be with us."

*Ed Klingelhofer
North Gold Senior Mountaineers*

Thank you so much for making our wedding a beautiful day. Your music was definitely the element for making a union of everybody. Gillian and I felt so happy to have you in the most important moment of our lives. We, as artists, appreciate your music-- the most deep and original expressions that we've ever heard before."

Biography

Ludi's life has been filled with music. Born into a musical family, and named after Ludwig Van Beethoven, Ludi (Ludwig) started playing trombone professionally when he was sixteen years old. He was trained by principal trombonist Bernard Schneider of the St. Louis Symphony, and was a scholarship student at Berklee College in Boston. Ludi has also recently studied Raga with Terry Riley. He has performed with Djieridoo master Steven Kent, jazz chanteuse Yve Evans, and juggling wizards Flying Karamazov Brothers. His journeys have been to Egypt, Bali and Greece, and recently returned from a performance in Japan with poet Gary Snyder. He has backed Chuck Berry and Mel Torme. Ludi delights audiences with his range of instrumentation and styles and tickles them with his personality. He continues to compose, perform and teach his many students from his home in the Sierra Foothills.
